

Brewery Licenses – Guidelines and Application

A Brewery license may be issued to a person or company licensed under the laws of Canada to produce beer.

If you are interested in establishing a Brewery in Newfoundland and Labrador please use the following as a guideline of the requirements. Please note: other agencies or departments may require information further to that which is listed below.

Guidelines / Requirements	✓
Newfoundland Labrador Liquor Corporation (NLC) License Requirements
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completed application for a brewery license (see attached) Please note if you intend to include a ‘tap room’ on your premises, you will require a Lounge License (separate application). • Completed Personal Data Sheets (enclosed) for all shareholders or directors • Current Certificate of Conduct for all Directors • Written Municipal approval • Written approval from the Provincial Fire Commissioner’s Office • One set of floor plans, drawn to scale on paper no larger than 8.5” x 14”, outlining the proposed licensed area, including dimensions of clearly identified rooms (including storage) • A current signed copy of a lease or purchase agreement • If incorporated, please provide Notice of Directors form, The Corporations Act (Form 6) • Written approval from the Canada Revenue Agency (see CRA section below) • Verification of Food Establishment License (see Digital Government and Service NL section below) • Written approval from Buildings Accessibility and Fire & Life Safety (see Digital Government and Service NL section below) • Once all information is collected, a pre-licensing inspection will be conducted
NLC Product Approvals and Reporting
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • As you move through the process, it is important for you to consult with NLC’s Merchandising Department, which is responsible for the products approved and sold by breweries. For more information on NLC’s listing process, please contact the Category Manager (Beer), Scott Collins, at (709) 724-3516 or scott.collins@nliquor.com. • Product pricing is based on NLC’s pricing policy. A fixed and variable markup component is applied to your cost which is the NLC markup. If approved, you may be eligible for a microbrewery discount as per the policy. For more information on pricing, please contact our Manager of Revenue Assurance and Pricing, Wanda Taylor, at (709) 724-1129 or wanda.taylor@nliquor.com. • Brewery Licensees will be required to file a monthly commission report to the NLC which tracks your inventory, production and sales and will detail the amount of commission due to the NLC. Commission due to NLC must be paid monthly in accordance with policy. Licensed breweries are also subject to audits by the NLC.
